

Washington, DC -- On Friday, January 16, 2009, U.S. Rep. Michael A. Arcuri (D-Utica) will attend the dedication of the Waterville, NY Post Office in honor of Corporal John P. Sigsbee who was killed in Iraq last year. Arcuri sponsored legislation to rename the Waterville Post Office in honor of Corporal Sigsbee and will attend the dedication ceremony at Waterville High School with local community leaders.

Event: Dedication of the Waterville Post Office in Honor of Corporal Sigsbee

Date: Friday, January 16, 2009

Time: 4:30pm

Location: Waterville High School, 381 Madison St., Waterville, NY

Last year, the U.S. House of Representatives passed legislation sponsored by Arcuri to rename the Waterville Post Office in honor of Corporal Sigsbee. Arcuri worked with Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton (D-NY) who sponsored companion legislation in the Senate.

On January 16th, 2008, Corporal Sigsbee of Waterville, New York was killed in action 50 miles north of Baghdad during his second tour of duty in Iraq. Corporal Sigsbee was 21 years old.

Corporal Sigsbee graduated from Waterville Central School in 2004 and attended Mohawk Valley Community College. Upon completing his first year of college, he decided to join the U.S. Army to further finance his higher education. Corporal Sigsbee served as a member of the 32nd Calvary Unit in the 101st Airborne Division.

###